6 Business from Correspondence:

7 New Business

Colin Plackett's daughter has taken ownership of her father's car and membership has been transferred.

8 CMC Delegate

CMC account balance $ 85,347.80. $7,000 will be transferred to a term deposit

DOT didn't realize changing form E81 impacted the CMC. CMC will update the electronic copy of the 404 information booklet, however, hard copy booklets will not provide the latest information. The old E81 form is still acceptable.

DOT confirmed it follows up on any non-conformance notifications sent to them by the CMC.

A special meeting will be held to provide Code 404 information to clubs proposed to be Monday November 3.

National Museum Classic Car Run will start at Wesley College on Sunday November 11 meeting from 8.30am. $10 per car.

$25 to get in to see the Holden Premier Collection at Whiteman Park, held by Burns and Co Auctioneers on Saturday 18th August with viewing on Friday 17th August. This cost covers both the Friday and Saturday entry. Visit the Burns and Co website for further details.

The Classic Car Show will again be held at Ascot Racecourse next year. Quiz night 2020 requires a host club.

CMC are still revising their constitution.

Historic stickers are now available through the Secretary, General meetings or from the Motor Museum.
